17 On August 4, 2006, the Court sentenced Edward Krastof to twenty-four months in 18 custody. According to U.S. Probation Officer Nicole Fairchild, Mr. Krastof to date is compliant 19 with all terms of his supervised release and has been so since his release from custody.

20 Mr. Krastof recently informed defense counsel that he had paid the entirety of his 21 restitution obligation, save interest. The probation officer confirms this as well. Due to defense 22 counsel's oversight, however, no request was made during Mr. Krastof's sentencing hearing that 23 the Court waive interest on the restitution obligation. Mr. Krastof is informed that no interest 24 will be assessed if the Court issues an order to that effect.

25 IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED AND AGREED that the Court may order any 26 interest on the restitution obligation imposed in the judgment dated August 7, 2006, be
